

Information for Applying for Endowment Seats in the M.A. and M.Sc. Programmes

Session 2021-2022

It is notified for all concerned that there are some additional seats (maximum 10% of the total intake) in the name of Endowment Seats in some Academic Programmes offered by the Teaching Departments and Centres for Studies. The eligible intending candidates have to pay an additional amount (onetime) along with the regular Admission and Course Fees if selected for. It is not mandatory that all Departments/ Centres of the University shall have endowment seats.

The admission to the endowment seats is done on the basis of the following principles-

- a) The Endowment Seats are filled up by the University from among the waitlisted candidates of the Programme concerned purely on merit basis irrespective of Dibrugarh University or other Universities
- b) The intending candidates shall have to apply for the Endowment Seats to the Head of the Department/ Chairperson of the Centre for Studies concerned on the date of admission or as per the notification notified by the Department/ Centre concerned. They are advised to apply for Endowment Seats in the Proforma attached herewith as Annexure A.
- c) The Endowment Fee for all Departments or Centres for Studies may not be the same. Please go through the Departmental Notice(s) for detailed information.
- d) The candidates enlisted in the Waiting List(s) may apply for Endowment Seats. The only selection criteria for the candidates is the Score of the DUPGET 2021 and other Academic Credentials (if DUPGET 2021 Score is same).
