

CSJMC, DIBRUGARH UNIVERSITY TO ORGANISE ALUMNI MEET 2021

Dibrugarh, 24th Dec 2021: Centre for Studies in Journalism & Mass Communication (CSJMC), Dibrugarh University, one of North-East India's premiere institutes of media and communication, is set to organize its Alumni Meet 2021 on 27th Dec, 2021, to reconnect with its strong network of alumni and bring together a collective of professionals who have the Centre at the core of their academic journey. This is the second alumni meet to be held at CSJMC.

Along with the illustrious alumni, spread all across the world, the event will also witness the presence of eminent personalities like Prof. Jiten Hazarika, Registrar, Dibrugarh University, Dr. Kandarpa Kumar Deka, former Vice Chancellor, Dr. Karabi Deka Hazarika, former Professor, Lakshminath Bezboroa Chair, Dept. Of Assamese, Dibrugarh University, Prof. Neeta Kalita Barua, President, Dibrugarh University Alumni Association and other distinguished guests.

Commenting on the occasion, Dr. Probin Kumar Gogoi, Chairperson, CSJMC, D.U., said, "The time at the University is one of the most precious phases of most students' lives. We learn new concepts, formulate new ideas, make the closest of friends, experience new emotions and carve out a path that forever remains in our hearts. At CSJMC, as we are set to organize the Alumni Meet 2021, I would like to invite all our alumni to come join us for the event and relieve these fond memories. Share with us your stories and let us be a part of your very special adventure called life, personal and professional. At this meet, allow us to demonstrate the advancements that CSJMC has made since you had left; we assure you that with your co-operation, it can go further."

This meet which promises to offer a space to former students, present students, academic staff and members to come together and work towards setting newer and greater agenda for the upcoming meets, will be held at Indira Miri Conference Hall, Dibrugarh University, 10 am onwards.

ABOUT CSJMC:

The Centre for Studies in Journalism and Mass Communication, Dibrugarh University is one of the leading institutions of higher learning in the field of communication and media studies in India. It has been successful in carving a niche for itself in the field of Media and Communication education since its inception in 2008. Eminent scholars, journalists, filmmakers, video professionals, corporate communication specialists, and leading academicians constitutes a panel of eminent visiting faculty who offer quality education to the students from across India and those from abroad enrolled under Indian Council for Cultural Relations – African Scholarship Scheme. For more information, please visit www.dibru.ac.in.

Media Contact:

Rashmirekha Changmai, Assistant Professor, CSJMC, DU

Email: rashmirekhachangmai@dibru.ac.in

Phone: 8861469170