To,
The Head of the Institute

Dear Sir/Madam,

Subject: Launching of शिल्पविद्या की उड़ान के सहयोगी Fellowship & Internship 2022

ONGC, as the nation's pioneer Oil and Gas Company, has been making gigantic impact in India's economic and society. Its contribution towards inclusive and sustainable growth has made a difference to the lives of many.

With the vision of impacting and socially transforming the lives of the underprivileged, ONGC has created a trust, ONGC Foundation with the objective to undertake, augment and facilitate activities, initiatives and projects relating to corporate social responsibility. Taking the development space to its peak by providing the excellence in philanthropy sector through its programme implementation in many social domains on education, health, skill development and livelihood, environment and social institution building and more.

ONGC Foundation is driven to strengthen the relationship with the communities to help prioritize their needs by eliminating the vulnerabilities to its optimum. ONGC Foundation will continue to strive to work closely with its stakeholders and communities in its quest of nurturing responsible future.

I am very pleased to inform you that as part of India@75, ONGC Foundation has launched the शिल्पविद्या की उड़ान के सहयोगी Fellowship & Internship 2022, to support and strengthen the existing organizational infrastructure that serves to improve the livelihoods of rural Indians in a sustainable manner. The focus of the intervention is the rich and varied Indian handicraft tradition, practiced by skilled rural artisans, who produce objects of great beauty with strong market potential.

ONGC Foundation invites applications for Fellows for शिल्पविद्या की उड़ान के सहयोगी Fellowship & Internship 2022. The Fellowship Programme is a 1 year program, offering positions for 10 fellows and 20 Interns for 3 months for motivated change makers who are aspiring to build a successful career aligned with nation-building. Please refer enclosed an Annexure 1 for detailed fellowship programme.

The Fellowship & Internship program is an incredible journey that empowers candidates to multiply their impact and hone their skills exponentially in the social ecosystem. In this journey, they will get to utilize their theoretical understanding with field experience. The fellowship will provide them with the opportunity to take charge of their personal growth and that of the other around them.

I hereby, with the disclosure of flagship of शिल्पविद्या की उड़ान के सहयोगी Fellowship & Internship 2022, would like to welcome this opportunity to young talent and potential candidates who have completed their post-graduation and pursuing.

I would request you to kindly take necessary steps for circulation and publicity of the letter and its enclosure to your Alumni Associations and other institutions to facilitate students passed out of your esteemed institutions to become impactful change makers.

With Regards

N. Jaiswal

Benefits for Fellows and Interns

By working on a social change problem, the fellows build themselves while building the nation. In doing so, they will understand change leadership at a deep level, and a system design thinking process that they can apply to any social problem they want to solve. The fellowship is designed to help the fellows and interns to develop leadership competencies.

Space to Innovate and Grow

The programmes facilitates personal and professional development. For individuals working on some of the most complex problems in society, this provides the space to learn and grow and exposure to new ideas and techniques.

Personal growth and enhanced status

Catalyst for personal growth (it leads to an increase in confidence, knowledge and capacity) and provides participants with opportunities for professional development. The exposure, access to networks, and diversity, helps acquiring new skills and fast-tracks their careers

Career Development

Professional fellowships exists for the specific purpose of introducing a new generation of professionals to become established leaders in their fields. This program include trainings, mentorships and other networking opportunities to connect fellows with executives, speakers, and mentors themselves.

Contribution to the Society

Fellows and Interns continue to be the change agents even after the program. They are seen as thought leaders, stay connected to social justice, contribute to innovation, programmes and policies, and continue to give back to their organizations and society at large.
